

SILC Internship Programme

SILC is currently looking for two interns to work on a number of projects. Tasks will vary and relate to SILC's litigation, advocacy and research activities, depending on current needs.

This is a great opportunity for young lawyers and graduates to work on a diversity of projects for a dynamic consulting firm with a global reach providing a range of services in the areas of international law, human rights and international criminal law to NGOs, States, International Organisations and affected communities worldwide.

More information on SILC activities : <https://www.strategic-ilc.com/>

Duration :

6 months but this can be adapted on a bilateral basis.

Working hours :

Full-time position with flexible hours. Special arrangements can be discussed on a bilateral basis.

Due to COVID-19 circumstances, the internship will most likely be done remotely.

Requirements :

- The interns should have university education and/or practical experience in one or more of the following fields : Public international law ; human rights ; international criminal law ;
- Reliable work ethic ;
- Capacity to work in English is mandatory. For at least one of the positions, fluency in French is required ;
- Good writing and computer skills ;
- Showing initiative, and the ability to work independently and under pressure.

Procedure :

candidates should send a CV and a cover letter to : dovjacobs@strategic-ilc.com